from the Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga District, on the above subject and to state that as per the statements showing the establishment and other charges sanctioned to these three Municipal High School, appended to the Government Orders mentioned in the margin, provision has been made inter alia for the appointment of a commerce teacher on Rs 40/- per mensem in grade Rs 40-4-60 in each of these schools with effect from the current year (1946-47) in connection with the opening of the II year classes in these schools during the year. The Deputy Commissioner Shimoga reports that in view of the fact that there were no students in any of these three schools who were willing to take up the subjects in the "Commercial Arts group" as their optionals, the Head Masters of these schools requested that Arts or Science graduate teachers might be appointed in their respective schools in place of the commerce
